TOURNAMENT PERSONNEL

On behalf of WV District 5 and Bridgeport Little League, it is our honor to welcome players, coaches, families, and supporters to the 2026 West Virginia Little League 9–10–11 State Tournament. This event represents the very best of youth baseball: competition, sportsmanship, and the shared joy of watching young athletes grow through the game.

This year's tournament is proudly hosted by Bridgeport Little League, a program built on decades of community involvement, volunteer dedication, and a deep commitment to developing both skilled players and strong character. Our league is thrilled to share our facilities, our volunteers, and our hometown spirit with teams from across the state.

All tournament games and activities will take place at The Bridge Sports Complex, a premier multisport facility designed to support athletes of all ages. With its high-quality fields, modern amenities, and family-friendly environment, The Bridge provides an exceptional setting for this year's competition. We hope you enjoy everything the complex—and our community—has to offer during your stay.

We wish every team the best of luck throughout the tournament. May your experience here be memorable, competitive, and filled with the excitement that makes Little League baseball so special.

Thank you for being part of this year's event, and welcome to Bridgeport.
